

"Where your love story meets timeless beauty"

WEDDING GUIDE | '27 - '28

DISCOVER AMASTUOLA

A timeless estate blending nature, history, and elegance.

Nestled in the heart of Puglia's Parco delle Gravine, Masseria Amastuola is a 15th-century farmhouse that has been meticulously restored into an exclusive Wine Resort, where history, design, and nature coexist in perfect harmony.

Surrounded by more than 100 hectares of organic vineyards—sculpted into graceful waves by renowned Spanish landscape architect Fernando Caruncho. Interwoven throughout this vineyard garden are 1,500 ancient olive trees.

The masseria itself is a living embodiment of timeless Apulian charm. Ancient vaulted stone rooms, panoramic terraces overlooking the vineyard sea, a refined wine bar, intimate tasting rooms, and a barrel cellar rich with character invite guests into an atmosphere of quiet elegance. The on-site restaurant, with its seasonal menus, pays homage to the region's rich culinary heritage, reinterpreting traditional dishes with contemporary finesse.

DESTINATION WEDDING

Weddings at Masseria Amastuola

Here, among sun-drenched vineyards and ancient stone walls, every wedding becomes a timeless celebration, a moment suspended between earth and sky.

Picture your vows whispered at golden hour, as the warm Apulian light dances across the waves of vines and the scent of wild herbs lingers in the air. The landscape itself becomes your witness: serene, evocative, deeply rooted in beauty and meaning.

Whether it's a sunset ceremony under the olive trees or a candlelit dinner in the courtyard, each moment is imbued with soul.

Our dedicated team works closely with you to ensure that your day is not only flawless but unforgettable, crafted with discretion, care, and a deep understanding of what makes a celebration truly meaningful.

Amastuola offers fully customizable spaces and the possibility of exclusive use of the entire resort, guaranteeing intimacy, beauty, and the freedom to bring your dream wedding to life in the heart of southern Italy.

WORLDWIDE VENUE

RELIGIOUS CEREMONY

International couples can celebrate a Catholic wedding in one of the many beautiful churches of Puglia, following the traditional Catholic rite. To do so, there are specific requirements that must be met in accordance with the Italian Church and civil regulations. What You Need: 1-Nulla Osta: You will need a formal letter of permission from your local parish, known as a Nulla Osta, signed by your bishop. 2-Religious Documents: You may also need to provide proof of baptism and confirmation, along with a certificate of completion of pre-marital counseling or preparation course.

3- Additional Documentation: Some parishes may request extra paperwork or translations of your documents. Requirements can vary, so we strongly recommend contacting the chosen parish well in advance.

Our Support

At Amastuola Wine Resort, we can assist you in coordinating with local parishes and help ensure that your documentation process runs smoothly. We work closely with experienced wedding planners and local clergy to support you every step of the way.

	WHERE	DISTANCE FROM THE MASSERIA	CAPACITY

CIVIL & SYMBOLIC CEREMONY

At Masseria Amastuola couples can choose whether to have a civil or a symbolic ceremony.

A civil ceremony is a legally binding ceremony that is performed by a local magistrate or a delegated civil official. It typically requires paperwork and legal formalities to be completed prior to the ceremony, and the couple must have witnesses present to sign the marriage certificate. The ceremony is conducted in Italian, and a fee is charged for the service by the town hall of Crispiano.

A symbolic ceremony, on the other hand, is not legally binding, but rather a symbolic representation of a couple's commitment to each other. This type of ceremony is often chosen by couples who have already completed a legal ceremony in their home country, or who simply want to have a non-traditional wedding ceremony. Symbolic ceremonies can be tailored to the couple's preferences and beliefs, and often include readings, blessings, and exchange of rings.

PRODUCING OUR WINES

Making organic wine means adopting an agricultural and production philosophy that privileges the relationship with the territory and nature, supporting a reduction in the use of chemicals (i.e. fertilizers and pesticides) and sulphites, adopting precise farming techniques and organic farming techniques aimed at preventing parasitic attacks in a natural way.

Amastuola organic wines are the result of the skillful work of those committed, day after day, to putting into practice and disseminating the values that the Amastuola team strongly believes in, namely: respect for nature and for the neighbour. We deliver this important message through the restaurants and wine shops that have chosen us and make the distribution of our wines possible.

THE CULINARY SOUL OF AMASTUOLA

Masseria Amastuola becomes a source of inspiration for a cuisine that respects the essence of each ingredient. Here, the culinary philosophy is rooted in the authenticity of the land, where every element is chosen with care and exalted through the creativity of Chef Luigi Chirico. In his dishes, you'll find the memory of Apulian culinary tradition reinterpreted with elegance to highlight the harmony and freshness of each flavor.

A cuisine that speaks of territory, sustainability, and seasonality. Each course is a journey through the landscapes of Puglia: a sensory experience that combines past and present, simplicity and refinement, earth and emotion.

RECEPTIONS AT MASSERIA

A wedding reception at Masseria Amastuola is an exquisitely unique and customizable event that is full of traditional charm and extraordinary character. The availability of many spaces within the masseria allows you to choose the perfect setting and ambiance for your special day.

Furthermore, the flexibility in customizing the flow of the event is one of the most appealing aspects of having your wedding reception here. Every detail of your reception can be tailored to your specific preferences, whether you want to have a traditional or modern reception, the choice is yours.

Discover our menus — Centosassi, Ondarosa, and Calaprice — a culinary experience blending Apulian tradition and gourmet refinement to make your special day truly unique.

POOL PARTY

As you walk onto the grounds of Masseria Amastuola, you can hear the sounds of laughter and relaxation coming from the pool area.

Approaching closer, you notice a perfectly set outdoor dining table under a large white gazebo, surrounded by comfortable lounge chairs and plush towels.

The sun is shining brightly, warming the skin, and creating the perfect environment for a poolside pizza party. The air is filled with the delicious aroma of freshly baked pizza from the outdoor wood oven.

The chef, adorned in classic Italian attire, stands proudly behind the pizza table, expertly crafting each pizza to perfection. The vibrant colors of the toppings - tomatoes, fresh basil, and mozzarella cheese - combine into a beautiful mosaic of flavors. Around the table, guests chat and sip on chilled Aperol spritzes and crisp white wine, happily munching on small nibbles of the homemade focaccia bread.

DISCOVER PUGLIA

Alberobello, with its fairytale trulli, is just a short drive from Amastuola and stands as one of Puglia's most iconic landmarks. A bit further north, Polignano a Mare and Monopoli offer stunning sea views, charming historic centers, and the crystal-clear waters of the Adriatic.

Lecce dazzles with its golden baroque architecture, while inland towns like Martina Franca and Cisternino invite you to slow down and enjoy authentic southern Italian life. For beach lovers, Punta Prosciutto, Pescoluse, and Torre dell'Orso are among the most breathtaking coastline in the Mediterranean.

From Amastuola Wine Resort, you're perfectly positioned to explore it all — where art, nature, history, and sea come together in the heart of Puglia.
